

In addition to a school's attendance policy, below are the actions Maritime Academy Trust Schools undertake to support, monitor and improve pupil attendance.

INSTIL A STAFF MINDSET OF HIGH EXPECTATIONS AROUND ATTENDANCE

Having all of your staff on board will help to make sure your approach to your attendance policy is consistent throughout your school. To do this:

- Give staff the necessary attendance vocabulary and encouraging soundbites, like “every school day is a great day”
- Remind staff to model a 100% expectation for pupils to attend and learn in every lesson.
- Make sure staff members model personal punctuality themselves
- Make sure staff are aware that mental health needs can be a barrier to attendance, whether or not they've been diagnosed. However, if a pupil is anxious about coming to school, long periods of absence can make the issue worse. Therefore, you should emphasise that school attendance will actually help these barriers in the long run.

ESTABLISH A SCHOOL'S CULTURE OF GOOD ATTENDANCE

- Visibly demonstrate the benefits of good attendance throughout school life. This may include in displays, assemblies or in registration periods.
- Make sure attendance support and improvement is appropriately resourced, including where applicable through effective use of pupil premium funding
- Accurately complete admission and attendance registers and have effective day to day processes in place to follow-up absence
- Monitor and analyse weekly attendance patterns and trends and deliver intervention and support in a targeted way to pupils and families.

ESTABLISH A SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAM PRESENCE AROUND SCHOOL

- Designate a school leader with responsibility for pupil attendance, known as a ‘senior attendance champion’.
- Have your senior leaders on the playground each morning.
- Have your senior leaders greet pupils on the playground or at the front of the school each morning, to give pupils a warm welcome.
- Make sure this first interaction is a positive one – avoid telling pupils off for being late or not wearing the right uniform. These are issues that can be addressed later in the day.
- Show that you've noticed when an often-absent pupil makes it to school that day.
- Greet them and let them know you're looking forward to seeing them the next day, too.
- In primary settings especially, this is also a good opportunity to build relationships with parents. This will help you work together to address any attendance issues that may come up.

MAKE GOOD ATTENDANCE EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY

Use this as a soundbite in its own right, and regularly remind your school community of this point.

Work with parents

- Parents/carers will be best placed to support their pupil and notice any issues that may be a barrier to attendance.
- Involve parents as soon as you notice an attendance issue with a pupil, and frame the discussion around what steps you can take to prevent it becoming a bigger problem.

- Use meetings, newsletters and your school website to get all parents/carers on board with your school's expectation for high attendance.
- Offer parenting classes that include sessions on morning routines and helpful ideas, such as 'getting dressed music'.
- Hold school uniform sales and have a stock from school donations, to help parents who can't afford to purchase new items. This can help parents overcome any self-consciousness about sending their children to school in an outgrown uniform, for example.

Involve your local community

Invite adult role models from your community to:

- Share the importance of good attendance.
- Discuss what happens if someone is late in the workplace or misses work.
- Demonstrate commitment and resilience to pupils. You could do this in assemblies or PSHE, for example.
- Consider using your Parent LAC members to stress the importance of attendance and the robustness of school policies and procedures to others, especially if they're influential in your local community.

GIVE PUPILS A PURPOSE TO BE IN SCHOOL EACH DAY

- Younger pupils especially might not make the link between good attendance and achievement.
- Have staff provide low-attenders with a task or responsibility each day, such as tidying the book corner or looking after younger pupils on the playground.
- Encourage staff to remind low-attenders about anything exciting happening the following day, such as, "it will be lovely to watch you play football tomorrow".
- You could also schedule regular pupil voice meetings about non-attendance, so your pupils understand and can share with others the impact of poor attendance.

PROVIDE SECURE CONDITIONS FOR LEARNING

- A safe school environment is incredibly important for many reasons, including attendance. It will help to make sure your pupils want to attend every day.
- Be relentless with managing bullying or any other issues between pupils, including on social media.
- Offer safe spaces around school and make sure pupils know who they can talk to if they're experiencing any issues from challenges with their peers, to their mental health.
- If you know a specific pupil is struggling, set up regular times for a trusted member of staff to check in with how they're doing, and find out if they need more support.
- You don't need to wait for an official diagnosis of a mental health issue to do this – take action and put appropriate steps in place as soon as you can when you notice that any pupil is struggling.

USE YOUR EXCITING CURRICULUM TO ENTICE PUPILS

- Your pupils need to feel that their learning is worthwhile. Make your curriculum stand out and highlight what's coming up, so they don't want to miss out on any learning.
- Work teaching about attendance into your curriculum. In lessons, ask your teachers to:
- Use pre-learning and anticipation of the next lesson's content to interest children – for example, "tomorrow we are ..."
- Link learning to past and future lessons, split content, and use pole-bridging to link lessons – such as "you will remember in our last lesson we ..."

ANTICIPATE FAMILY PATTERNS

These might include:

- Holidays during term time
- Birthdays off

- Younger siblings copying the behaviour of older family members

INCLUDE CLEAR STAGES OF ACTION IN YOUR POLICY

- You want to make it clear that any fines for non-attendance are not a disincentive due to the cost of travel in school holidays.
- Discuss this with parents and outline it on your school website or in a newsletter.
- Make sure you:
 - Have robust systems and structures for attendance, and review them regularly
 - Use data analysis to make sure no pupils fall through the attendance gap
 - Engage outside agencies to help manage persistent absentees

Attendance Policy Principles

Promoting excellent attendance is the responsibility of the whole school community. Our schools will promote excellent attendance through their use of curriculum and learning materials. This is reinforced in our school's Behaviour and other policies. Excellent attendance by pupils will be recognised appropriately. All children should be at school, on time, every day the school is open, unless the reason for the absence is unavoidable.

3.5 Class Teachers

Class Teachers are responsible for recording attendance for both morning and afternoon sessions on a daily basis, using the correct codes (see Appendix 1), and submitting this information to the school office

Every day before 8:45am and 1:35pm via BROMCOM

3.6 School Office Staff

School Office Staff will:

- Take information from parents/carers about absence on a day-to-day basis and record it on the school system
- Transfer calls from parents/carers to the Head of School where appropriate, in order to provide them with more detailed support on attendance

3.7 Parents

Where this policy refers to a parent, it refers to the adult the school and/or local authority decides is most appropriate to work with, including:

- All natural parents, whether they are married or not
- All those who have parental responsibility for a child or young person
- Those who have day-to-day responsibility for the child (i.e. lives with and looks after them)
- Parents are expected to:
- Make sure their child attends every day on time
- Call the school to report their child's absence before 9am on the day of the absence and each subsequent day of absence, and advise when they are expected to return via Studybugs App

- Seek support, where necessary, for maintaining good attendance, by contacting Simone Lane who can be contacted via Simone.Lane@kent.gov.uk

Parents are expected to refer to and consulted the NHS guidance Is my child too ill for school when considering keeping their child home from school.

3.8 Pupils

Pupils are expected to:

- Attend school every day, on time

4. Recording attendance

4.1 Attendance register

We will keep an electronic attendance register, and place all pupils onto this register.

We will take our attendance register at the start of the first session of each school day and once during the second session. It will mark, using the appropriate national attendance and absence codes from the School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024, whether every pupil is:

- Present
- Attending an approved off-site educational activity
- Absent
- Unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances

Any amendment to the attendance register will include:

- The original entry
- The amended entry
- The reason for the amendment
- The date on which the amendment was made
- The name and position of the person who made the amendment

See Appendix 1 for the DfE attendance codes.

We will also record:

- Whether the absence is authorised or not
- The nature of the activity, where a pupil is attending an approved educational activity
- The nature of circumstances, where a pupil is unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances

We will keep every entry on the attendance register for 6 years after the date on which the entry was made.

The school day starts at 8:30am and ends at 3:15pm .

Pupils must arrive in school by 8.40 on each school day.

The register for the first session will be taken at 8:40am and will be kept open until 9:10am – not longer than 30 minutes after the session begins, or the length of the form time or first lesson in which registration takes place].

The register for the second session will be taken at 1:30pm and will be kept open until 2:00pm.

4.2 Unplanned absence

The pupil's parent must notify the school of the reason for the absence on the first day of an unplanned absence by 8am or as soon as practically possible, by messaging via Studybugs app, if you have challenges then contact the office staff, who can be contacted via phone number: 01987591627 or email: info@ebbsfleetgreenprimary.org.uk

Please ensure the specific reason for absence is clearly stated, as we require a detailed explanation upon request rather than general terms like unwell, ill, or injured.

We will mark absence due to physical or mental illness as authorised, unless the school has a genuine concern about the authenticity of the illness.

Where the absence is longer than 5 days, or there are doubts about the authenticity of the illness, the school will ask for medical evidence, such as a doctor's note, prescription, appointment card or other appropriate form of evidence. We will not ask for medical evidence unnecessarily.

If the school is not satisfied about the authenticity of the illness, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised and parents will be notified of this in advance.

4.3 Planned absence

Attending a medical or dental appointment will be counted as authorised as long as the pupil's parent notifies the school in advance of the appointment.

When requesting a leave of absence for a child, parents should send an email to the school in advance. However, not all requests will be authorized. The school must be informed regardless of the reason.

Authorization is not guaranteed: The school holds the authority to decide whether to approve a leave of absence. Unauthorised absences can lead to fines or other penalties.

Provide clear reasons: When you make your request, clearly state the reason for the absence. Avoid vague terms like "personal reasons" or "family matter."

Timely notification: It's crucial to inform the school as far in advance as possible to give them adequate time to consider the request.

However, we encourage parents to make medical and dental appointments out of school hours where possible. Where this is not possible, the pupil should be out of school for the minimum amount of time necessary.

The pupil's parent must also apply for other types of term-time absence as far in advance as possible of the requested absence. Go to section 5 to find out which term-time absences the school can authorise.

4.4 Lateness and punctuality

A pupil who arrives late:

- Before the register has closed will be marked as late, using the appropriate code
- After the register has closed will be marked as absent, using the appropriate code

School identifies and responds to ongoing punctuality issues by monitoring the attendance for the whole term and issue a letter informing the Parent to arrange a meeting with the Head teacher to discuss any concerns.

4.5 Following up unexplained absence

Where any pupil we expect to attend school does not attend, or stops attending, without reason, the school will:

- Call the pupil's parent on the morning of the first day of unexplained absence to ascertain the reason. If the school cannot reach any of the pupil's emergency contacts, the school may conduct a home visit.
- Identify whether the absence is approved or not
- Identify the correct attendance code to use and input it as soon as the reason for absence is ascertained – this will be no later than 5 working days after the session(s) for which the pupil was absent
- Call the parent on each day that the absence continues without explanation, to make sure proper safeguarding action is taken where necessary. If absence continues, the school will consider involving an education welfare officer
- Where relevant, report the unexplained absence to the pupil's youth offending team officer
- Where appropriate, offer support to the pupil and/or their parents to improve attendance
- Identify whether the pupil needs support from wider partners, as quickly as possible, and make the necessary referrals
- Where support is not appropriate, not successful, or not engaged with: issue a notice to improve, penalty notice or other legal intervention (see section 5.2 below), as appropriate

If an unexplained absence continues for 10 school days, the school will make a Child Missing Education (CME) referral to the Local Authority.

4.6 Reporting to parents

The school will regularly inform parents (see definition of 'parent', as used in this policy, in section 3.7 above) about their child's attendance and absence levels via written reports.

5. Authorised and unauthorised absence

5.1 Approval for term-time absence

The headteacher will allow pupils to be absent from the school site for certain educational activities, or to attend other schools or settings.

A leave of absence can only be granted at the headteacher's discretion, prior to the event and including the length of time the pupil is authorised to be absent for.

The headteacher will only grant a leave of absence to a pupil during term time if the request meets the specific circumstances set out in the 2024 school attendance regulations. These circumstances are:

- Taking part in a regulated performance, or regulated employment abroad
- Attending an interview
- Study leave - attending school entrance examinations
- A temporary, time-limited part-time timetable
- Exceptional circumstances

We define 'exceptional circumstances' as rare, unavoidable, and short-term events that are considered significant. They are unique to each family and are decided by the head teacher based on their assessment of the request.

Unauthorised absences are periods of "leave" which the school does not consider reasonable and for which no authorisation has been given. With unauthorised absence, the school does not agree that the reason given by a parent is acceptable.

As a leave of absence will only be authorised where either unplanned sickness or an authorised leave of absence above including exceptional circumstances as outlined above, family holiday is therefore an unauthorised leave of absence.

Where a leave of absence crosses the national threshold (10 sessions of unauthorised absence in a rolling period of 10 school weeks) it can lead to the Local Authority using sanctions and/or legal proceedings as outlined in 5.2 (Sanctions).

Unauthorised reasons include:

- Parents/carers keeping children off unnecessarily
- Truancy before or during the school day
- Absences which have never been properly explained
- Pupils who arrive at school after the register has closed
- Shopping, looking after other children or birthdays
- Day trips and holidays in term time, unless an authorised school trip
- Oversleeping
- Absence to look after an unwell sibling/family member
- Confusion over term dates
- School refusal

Some examples of exceptional circumstances include:

- A close family member's death or terminal illness
- Attending a funeral
- A parent's wedding
- A housing crisis
- A health professional recommends an absence for a parent or child's rehabilitation
- A child of service personnel who is about to go on deployment
- Important religious observances

Leave of absence will not be granted for a pupil to take part in protest activity during school hours.

The school considers each application for term-time absence individually, taking into account the specific facts, circumstances and relevant background context behind the request.

Any request should be submitted as soon as it is anticipated and, where possible, at least two weeks before the absence, and in accordance with any leave of absence request via email.

The headteacher may require evidence to support any request for leave of absence.

Other valid reasons for authorised absence include (but are not limited to):

- Illness (including mental-health illness) and medical/dental appointments (see sections 4.2 and 4.3 for more detail)
- Religious observance – where the day is exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which the pupil's parent(s) belong(s). If necessary, the school will seek advice from the parent's religious body to confirm whether the day is set apart
- Parent(s) travelling for occupational purposes – this covers Roma, English and Welsh gypsies, Irish and Scottish travellers, showmen (fairground people) and circus people, bargees (occupational boat dwellers) and new travellers. Absence may be authorised only when a traveller family is known to be travelling for occupational purposes and has agreed this with the school, but it is not known whether the pupil is attending educational provision

- If the pupil is currently suspended or excluded from school (and no alternative provision has been made)

Other reasons the school may allow a pupil to be absent from the school site, which are not classified as absences, include (but are not limited to):

- Attending an offsite approved educational activity, sporting activity or visit or trip arranged by the school
- Attending another school at which the pupil is also registered (dual registration)
- Attending provision arranged by the local authority
- Attending work experience
- If there is any other unavoidable cause for the pupil not to attend school, such as disruption to travel caused by an emergency, a lack of access arrangements, or because the school premises are closed

5.2 Sanctions

Our school will make use of the full range of potential sanctions – including, but not limited to, those listed below – to tackle poor attendance. Decisions will be made on an individual, case-by-case basis.

Penalty notices

The headteacher (or someone authorised by them), local authority or the police can fine parents for the unauthorised absence of their child from school, where the child is of compulsory school age, by issuing a penalty notice.

Schools will consider whether a penalty notice for absence is appropriate in each individual case where one of their pupils reaches the national threshold for considering a penalty notice. Schools will not have a blanket position of issuing or not issuing penalty notices and will make judgements on each individual case.

- The threshold is 10 sessions of unauthorised absence in a rolling period of 10 school weeks.

If the school issues a penalty notice, it will check with the local authority before doing so, and send it a copy of any penalty notice issued.

Before issuing a penalty notice, the school will consider the individual case, including:

- Whether the national threshold for considering a penalty notice has been met (10 sessions of unauthorised absence in a rolling period of 10 school weeks)
- Whether a penalty notice is the best available tool to improve attendance for that pupil
- Whether further support, a notice to improve or another legal intervention would be a more appropriate solution
- Whether any obligations that the school has under the Equality Act 2010 make issuing a penalty notice inappropriate

Each parent who is liable for the pupil's offence(s) can be issued with a penalty notice, but this will usually only be the parent/parents who allowed the absence.

The payment must be made directly to the local authority, regardless of who issues the notice. If the payment has not been made after 28 days, the local authority can decide whether to prosecute or withdraw the notice.

If issued with a first penalty notice, the parent must pay £80 within 21 days, or £160 within 28 days.

If a second penalty notice is issued to the same parent in respect of the same pupil, the parent must pay £160 if paid within 28 days.

A third penalty notice cannot be issued to the same parent in respect of the same child within 3 years of the date of the issue of the first penalty notice. In a case where the national threshold is met for a third time within those 3 years, alternative action will be taken instead.

A penalty notice may also be issued where parents allow their child to be present in a public place during school hours without reasonable justification, during the first 5 days of a suspension or exclusion (where the school has notified the parents that the pupil must not be present in a public place on that day). These penalty notices are not included in the National Framework, not subject to the same considerations about support being provided, and do not count towards the limit as part of the escalation process.

In these cases, the parent must pay £60 within 21 days, or £120.

Summary

Per Parent Per Child	Penalty Notice Fines will be issued to each parent, for each child that was absent. E.g if you have 3 siblings absent for Term Time Leave, that would result in each parent receiving 3 separate fines.
5 Consecutive Days of Term Time Leave	Penalty Notice Fines will be issued for Term Time Leave of 5 or more consecutive days . Inset training days are school days and can be included in the 5 or more consecutive days where there was intent to be absent for term time leave.
10 Sessions of Unauthorised Absence in a 10 week period	Penalty Notice Fines will be considered when there has been 10 sessions of unauthorised absence in a 10 week period .
First Offence	The first time a Penalty Notice is issued for Term Time Leave, or Irregular Attendance, the amount will be: £160 per parent, per child (if paid within 28 days), this will be reduced to £80 per parent, per child (if paid within 21 days).
Second Offence (within 3 years)	The second time a Penalty Notice is issued for Term Time Leave, or Irregular Attendance, the amount will be: £160 per parent, per child (if paid within 28 days)
Third Offence and any further offences (within 3 years)	The third time an offence is committed for Term Time Leave or Irregular Attendance, a Penalty Notice will not be issued, and the case will be presented straight to the Magistrates Court. Magistrates' fines can be up to £2500 per parent, per child. Cases found guilty in Magistrates Court can show on the parents' future DBS certificate, due to 'failure to safeguard a child's education'.

Notices to improve

If the national threshold has been met and support is appropriate, but parents do not engage with offers of support, the school may offer a notice to improve to give parents a final chance to engage with support.

Notices to improve will be issued in line with processes set out in the local code of conduct for the local authority area in which the pupil attends school.

They will include:

- Details of the pupil's attendance record and of the offences
- The benefits of regular attendance and the duty of parents under section 7 of the Education Act 1996
- Details of the support provided so far
- Opportunities for further support, or to access previously provided support that was not engaged with
- A clear warning that a penalty notice may be issued if attendance doesn't improve within the improvement period, along with details of what sufficient improvement looks like, which will be decided on a case-by-case basis
- A clear timeframe of between 3 and 6 weeks for the improvement period
- The grounds on which a penalty notice may be issued before the end of the improvement period

6. Strategies for promoting attendance

- attendance certificates for with 100% attendance or improved attendance over a term;
- attendance percentages for each class highlighted in our Gazette;
- regular promotion of our StudyBugs app to track attendance
- clear procedures to offer support at key percentage points for absence
- offers of support on a family by family and case by case basis i.e. open communication is encouraged and promoted with all staff and parents to ensure any barriers to attendance are addressed early;
- Parenting contracts offered to encourage parents and children to engage with improving attendance

NOTE: An attendance contract is a formal written agreement between a parent and either the school or local authority to address irregular attendance at school or alternative provision. An attendance contract is not legally binding but allows a more formal route to secure engagement with support where a voluntary early help plan has not worked or is not deemed appropriate.

7. Supporting pupils who are absent or returning to school

7.1 Pupils absent due to complex barriers to attendance

- meeting to create and monitor parent contract with school and/or education welfare officer
- meet with the wellbeing team and/or SENDCO to ensure any interventions or support can be put in place e.g. nomination of key worker to carry out regular check ins for the child
- offer of regular meetings to monitor progress with attendance and identification of successes and/or further previously unidentified barriers;
- signposting for parents for support with getting children to school regularly and on time e.g. parenting courses/support groups

7.2 Pupils absent due to mental or physical ill health or SEND

For pupils absent from school due to mental or physical ill health or their SEND, the school meet with parents to ascertain how these barriers are preventing attendance.

A referral may be made to an early help style intervention/support, the local authority SEND team may be contacted for strategies to support the family. This may lead to - a temporary part time timetable being put in place, regularly reviewed, with the aim to build back up to a full timetable

- additional support in an alternative setting for a fixed period of time, again to be regularly reviewed;
- the local authority attendance advisory service engaged to offer advice and support for both the school and family to identify how attendance can be improved whilst supporting the pupil in question.
- All support is on a case by case, family by family basis

Where a pupil has an education health and care (EHC) plan and their attendance falls, or the school becomes aware of barriers to attendance that related to the pupil's needs, the school will inform the local authority.

7.3 Pupils returning to school after a lengthy or unavoidable period of absence

To support pupils back into school after a lengthy or unavoidable period of absence, the school will work closely with the parent and education welfare office to support the pupil returning back to full time education through strategies including

- a temporary part time timetable being put in place, regularly reviewed, with the aim to build back up to a full timetable
- additional support in an alternative setting for a fixed period of time, again to be regularly reviewed;
- the local authority attendance advisory service engaged to offer advice and support for both the school and family to identify how attendance can be improved whilst supporting the pupil in question.

8. Attendance monitoring

Ebbsfleet Green Primary School utilises StudyBugs to monitor attendance and punctuality. This is available to all parents to report absence and parents can use My Child At School to monitor attendance for their own children. Should a child's attendance continue to be a concern and reach 95%, StudyBugs will notify the school admin team. The school office will contact the parent, alert them to this percentage and discuss any reasons for absence and if there is any support the school can offer. This conversation will be logged on the school's MIS system

If a child's attendance falls below 90%, meaning the child's attendance would be classed as 'persistent absence', the Head of School will invite the parent in for a meeting to discuss any concerns in more detail and create a parent contract moving forward to ensure the parent is aware of the school and parent's obligations with regards to attendance or a letter will be sent out where medical evidence will be needed for future authorised absence. This meeting will be logged on the school's safeguarding records.

The school's attendance officer meets with the Head of School to discuss individual children whose attendance is a concern and to ensure measures in place to ensure the child's attendance improves. If there is an ongoing concern, the education welfare officer may contact the parent in addition to the school's communication to ensure all support is being engaged with and having an impact.

8.1 Monitoring attendance

The school will monitor attendance and absence data (including punctuality) half-termly, termly and yearly across the school and at an individual pupil, year group and cohort level.

Specific pupil information will be shared with the DfE on request.

The school has granted the DfE access to its management information system so the data can be accessed regularly and securely through regular data sharing with the local authority and through StudyBugs.

Data will be collected each term and published at national and local authority level through the DfE's school absence national statistics releases. The underlying school-level absence data is published alongside the national statistics.

The school will benchmark its attendance data at whole school, year group and cohort level against local, regional, and national levels to identify areas of focus for improvement, and share this with the local academy council board.

8.2 Analysing attendance

The school will:

- Analyse attendance and absence data regularly to identify pupils, groups or cohorts that need additional support with their attendance, and
- Identify pupils whose absences may be a cause for concern, especially those who demonstrate patterns of persistent or severe absence
- Conduct thorough analysis of half-termly, termly, and full-year data to identify patterns and trends
- Look at historic and emerging patterns of attendance and absence, and then develop strategies to address these patterns

8.3 Using data to improve attendance

The school will:

- Develop targeted actions to address patterns of absence (of all severities) of individual pupils, groups or cohorts that it has identified via data analysis
- Provide targeted support to the pupils it has identified whose absences may be a cause for concern, especially those who demonstrate patterns of persistent or severe absence, and their families (see section 8.4 below)
- Provide regular attendance reports to facilitate discussions with pupils and families, and to the local academy council board and school leaders (including special educational needs co-ordinators, designated safeguarding leads and pupil premium leads)
- Use data to monitor and evaluate the impact of any interventions put in place in order to modify them and inform future strategies
- Share information and work collaboratively with other schools in the area, local authorities and other partners where a pupil's absence is at risk of becoming persistent or severe, including keeping them informed regarding specific pupils, where appropriate

8.4 Reducing persistent and severe absence

Persistent absence is where a pupil misses 10% or more of school, and severe absence is where a pupil misses 50% or more of school. Reducing persistent and severe absence is central to the school's strategy for improving attendance.

The school will:

- Use attendance data to find patterns and trends of persistent and severe absence
- Consider potential safeguarding issues and, where suspected or present, address them in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Hold regular meetings with the parents of pupils who the school (and/or local authority) considers to be vulnerable or at risk of persistent or severe absence, or who are persistently or severely absent, to:
 - Discuss attendance and engagement at school
 - Listen, and understand barriers to attendance
 - Explain the help that is available
 - Explain the potential consequences of, and sanctions for, persistent and severe absence
 - Review any existing actions or interventions
- Provide access to wider support services to remove the barriers to attendance, in conjunction with the local authority, where relevant
- Consider alternative support that could be put in place to remove any barriers to attendance and re-engage these pupils. In doing so, the school will sensitively consider some of the reasons for absence
- Implement sanctions, where necessary (see section 5.2, above)

9. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be reviewed as guidance from the local authority and/or DfE is updated, and as a minimum annually by the headteacher

At every review, the policy will be approved by the full LAC board meeting
